

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 4:49; sunset, 7:02.

F. C. Compton, Chicago publisher, brands untrue report that he is to wed Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of president.

Wm. Monday, 19, taken back to Kalamazoo to face charge of stealing $1,600 worth of diamonds from his grandmother.

Jos. Steinberg, 1111 W. 12th, died after fall from scaffold, 1215 W. Madison. Painter.

Chicago garment manufacturers met at Midway Gardens today.

Mrs. Ida Meinfelter, arrested in Cincinnati swindling charge, discharged.

Fourteen Somali negroes, who raised Cain when they didn't get pay for being wild men at S. State st. theater, will be deported to Africa. Were in Judge Prindville's court garbed only in sheets and blankets.

Two windows Hugo Schwantes' sporting goods store, 3056 Lincoln av., broken by people in auto.

John Connell, 3809 Emerald av., one of five in car which injured Patrolmen Herron and Christy, held. Others released.

Tony Codronez, Cincinnati, swindled out of $200 on old found-pocket-book game.

Andrew Bortson, negro, proprietor Bortson hotel, 1148 E. 75th, fined $25 for keeping dive.

Six firemen hurled to street when fire auto overturned, Michigan av. and 47th. Fireman Jas. Gunner, leg broken.

Police renew search for Pearl Riley, 16, 4055 S. LaSalle, missing since June 5. Seen Aug. 2, 39th and State, wearing Salvation Army uniform.

Louis Weintraul, 1049 W. 14th, proposed to Miss Pearl Rahpstein, 1401 Solon. Rejected. Swallowed poison. Conditions serious. "I don't care," said girl.

Detective Serg't C. E. Anderson, 5112 S. Union av., Maxwell st. station, pushed off Halsted st. car. Bruised.

Coroner's inquest over Agatha Maslawski, killed by auto driven by John Novak, continued till Aug. 17. Witnesses said Novak was going 40 miles an hour.

John Gallagher, 6438 Justine, watchman of building, 1911 Milwaukee av., beaten by 3 men.

Transient laborers who solicit odd jobs in Oak Park will hereafter have to go to city hall for quiz and permit.

Julius Habitzreiter, 60, 1844 George, shot self rather than die lingering death of consumptive.

Edw. Hodges, 1052 W. Madison, held to grand jury. Wm. Leesburg, County hospital, says he was robbed.

Young English girl fleeing from war to Santa Barbara, Cal., disappeared in Chicago.

Dr. J. H. Ballard, found with Miss Mary Mulner, assistant, unconscious in office, 4001 W. 12th, and released when he protested it was no suicide pact, shot Hugo Schmidt, barber, shortly after release, is report to police.

Sam Lee, 457 W. 26th, laundryman, fined $100 for carrying pistol.

Coroner finds Mrs. Stella Sams died of illegal operation, not of pneumonia, as doctor's certificate read. Will investigate.

MAKE HANGING A PICNIC— LYNCHING IN OKLAHOMA

Starkville, Miss., Aug. 7.—Two negroes were hanged here yesterday before 8,000 spectators, who sang hymns at the negroes' request. 1,500 women, white and darkies, in gay-colored clothes, were among the spectators. Pop, lemonade and sandwiches were sold, the scene resembling a circus ground.

Shawnee, Okla.—After, it is said, he had confessed to killing two women and attacking many others, Ed Berry, negro, was lynched here by mob which took him away from officers. Lynching occurred at scene of one of his crimes.